

Equality & Diversity

Religion Or Belief

This module explores the Equality Act 2010 with respect to religion or belief. We will look at what is meant by a religious belief, as well as a philosophical belief and look at the four types of discrimination: direct, indirect, harassment and victimisation. We will also cover what an employer and an employee can do to prevent unwanted discrimination and what to do if you feel that you or someone else is being discriminated against at work. Furthermore we will observe a case study to see the law in action.

In this Module

Videoscribe explainer video, with professional audio (duration: 04:15)

English Subtitles

12 Expanded learning content blocks in the module format

'Check my understanding'
5 Question knowledge check

Top Tips

1. Equality law forbids discrimination on the grounds of religion or belief.
2. Employers should adopt policies and procedures which are designed to prevent discrimination.
3. If you believe you have been discriminated against, report it.

